The minutes of the regular meetings on February 12, 2026, were approved. Motion to accept by Michael Dennis. William Feocco second. All in favor. Motion carried.

Communications:

- VFIS letter received regarding insurance. Heather contacted Adams with cancelled check, and they took care of it.

New Business:

- Cayuga County Mutual Aid contract received.
- Utility costs discussed. The board will continue to monitor.

Old Business:

- John Komarisky made a motion to accept the quotation from Whiting's to replace the vertical blinds in the banquet hall for $5,951.00. Michael Dennis second. All in favor. Motion carried.
- Awning replacement – Gordon Bowen made a motion to designate the awning/porch enclosure replacement as a purchase contract and accept the RFB as written. William Feocco second. All in favor. Motion carried. John will reach out to contractors.
- The electronic sign is still being built by PAC Signs with an anticipated delivery in April. The district has to run a second electrical line out to the new sign. Elite Electric will be contacted to do this. Training is included in the purchase price. Need line of sight to program this new electronic sign.
- Spectrum in progress – Chief Holmes is handling.
- Rescue 1 – The service invoice on this month's warrant was performed in October 2025 before the District found out the frame was shot. This annual chassis service without inspection was done on site at the firehouse. Rescue 1 then went to Repair Plus for inspection where the frame problem was found. The new frame has been ordered, and Colden is waiting for that to come in and then the engine refit will be scheduled.
- Alvin replacement – John is meeting with a gentleman from Seneca falls this week. The district is still looking for a lawn mowing service. Heather will make some more calls.
- EZ Passes for the District passenger vehicles have been purchased. Chief Sean will tell Heather which tags go to each vehicle, and she will set up an online account.
